

NIMAI MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

ADDRESS: M-01, Bank Street Building, Khalid Bin Al Waleed Road, Dubai, U.A.E

Who are they?

- Established in 2009, it is a financial consulting firm which provides its clients with professional advice of fiscal affairs.
- Their primary focus is the facilitation of a diverse range of solutions to their clients.
- A few of their specializations include the mass syndication of bank finances, the rationalization of financial costs, and the global trade of economic resolutions.

What do they offer?

- The opportunity to intern in their human resources department, specifically in their talent acquisition and recruitment team.
- Recruitment tasks and operations, such as working on and updating their comprehensive recruitment database, or interacting with representatives from their international branches.
- Experience creating their induction manual for new employees, or sourcing potential profiles for particular positions.

How will this internship benefit you?

- Development of professional and personal capabilities, and steady workforce ethics.
- Cultivation of interpersonal skills due to emphasis on frequent interaction with co-workers.
- Ample insight into the inner workings of consultancy firms.

"I feel like I have improved my interpersonal skills by speaking with so many people from different backgrounds. I also have more knowledge on how financial consultancy firms work, and on vital skills, like making formal reports using statistics."

- Aadya Shrivastava

"A good learning experience for students who want to pursue their career in HR."

- Aadya Shrivastava

Veteran Tips

- If you are prospecting a career in either finance or human resources, this internship will undoubtedly diversify your skill set.
- Realistically experiencing the workplace environment first-hand will certainly provide you with clarity on a potential career path.